Thinks Russia May Be Set for New Tests

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the Soviet Union may be planning a further round of nuclear weapons tests but that the United States does not plan further atmospheric tests in the immediate future.

Rusk told a news conference that he had recently reopened with the Soviets the possibility of an agreement banning atmospheric tests, as has just been proposed by a group of senators.

But he said the Soviet government is reluctant even to talk seriously about test ban problems, and the reason may be that the Soviets plan further testing.

Rusk also argued against suggestions recently advanced by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a Republican party leader, that the United States help its European allies develop a European nuclear force.

He declared that the nuclear military power of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization should be "indivisible" as between Europe and the United States. He also declared the United States "should not support or aid national nuclear forces."

However, Rusk said he believed that an international or "multilateral" nuclear force could be formed within NATO without bringing about any further national spread of nuclear weapons.

Rusk said the proposition that the Soviet Union, United States and Britain should break the test ban deadlock by agreeing as a first step to prohibit all explosions in the atmosphere was brought up when he saw Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin on May 18. Dobrynin has now returned to Moscow for consultation.

Rules Justice Dept. Can't Sue for Integration

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge H. Hobart Grooms today held that the Justice Department does not have the right to sue for integration of Madison County and Huntsville schools.

The Justice Department filed suit in January seeking to integrate schools in federally impacted areas.

Grooms used as precedent an identical suit filed in Mississippi which was dismissed last month.

"I am of the opinion that the United States is without authority to maintain this action, and further, that the complaint does not state a claim upon which relief can be granted," Grooms said.

As late as May 13, 1963, the judge said, the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals refused to hold that the United States could sue under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

It did, however, reaffirm the principle that the United States is not a persons under the 14th Amendment, he said.

The action was brought seeking to enjoin the school boards from segregating any dependents of military personnel or civilian employees in the public school system.

The government said that such segregation would violate the civil rights of the children in areas in which federal funds are provided for maintenance of the schools.

Huntsville is the site of the Army's Redstone Arsenal, the Marshall Space Flight Center and other federal installations.

Major racial developments elsewhere: A federal judge at Biloxi, Miss., ordered a Negro, Cleve McDowell, 21, admitted to the University of Mississippi Law School for the summer semester beginning June 5.

U.S. Dist. Judge Sidney Mize brushed aside a State College Board contention that McDowell should not be admitted because of unrest on the campus—scene of bloody rioting last fall when James H. Meredith became the school's first known Negro student.

A highly placed source in Washington said President Kennedy has invited more than 150 Southern businessmen to a conference Tuesday to discuss problems related to desegregating public facilities. It was indicated that the President plans to hold similar conferences later with clergymen and public officials from the South.

In Birmingham, Ala., a Negro attorney said a federal judge's refusal to force desegregation of Birmingham public schools will be appealed. U.S. Dist. Judge Seymour H. Lynne ruled Tuesday that Negroes first should seek desegregation through Alabama pupil placement law. He added that unless the city school board applies the law without discrimination, he would order them to draw up a desegregation plan.

The invitation will be switched to other boats along the Arkansas and Mississippi Rivers, eventually reaching New York June 21.

Bates Refused Service at Capitol

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Negro leader L. C. Bates of Little Rock says he plans a drive to desegregate facilities at the Capitol cafeteria, where he was refused service Tuesday.

Bates, field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, warned also that unless his organization got results from a desegregation conference with Little Rock city officials, it would start organizing for "concerted demonstrations."

Bates said he was at the Capitol on private business and stopped at the basement cafeteria for lunch. He said he was told the cafeteria did not serve Negroes.

Mrs. Edris Tye, cafeteria manager, said employee Harry Hutchinson told Bates he could not be served but could eat in the rear. She said she was in her office when Bates came in, but was using the telephone and did not get to talk to him.

Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said there was no policy on serving Negroes at the cafeteria, but that he planned to look into the matter.

Bryant said he was out of the building when Tuesday's incident occurred. Bates came to his office, he said, and was invited to wait, but declined.

"Whatever steps need to be taken to integrate the (Capitol) cafeteria and remove the racial signs from restrooms will be taken immediately," Bates said. "If it takes demonstrations to do it, we'll demonstrate. If it takes court action, we'll do that."

Bates conferred in April with City Manager Ancil Douthett on desegregation of restaurants, theaters and other places in Little Rock. He said he had been told the city manager board would take up the matter and that the NAACP would be notified of the board's decision.

Gary Teachers Win Recognition
GARY, Ind. (AP)—Gary school teachers agreed to go back to their classes today after a one-day strike that won recognition of the Gary teachers union as bargaining agent for its members.

About 1,300 union teachers boycotted classes and picketed the city's 42 public schools Tuesday, forcing them to close.

The executive committee of the union, Local 4 of the American Federation of Teachers, and the Gary School Board met Tuesday night with Herbert Butler, state labor commissioner, and reached agreement on points raised by the union.

The board and the union issued a joint statement saying the strike had been settled. They declined to disclose the terms immediately but union spokesmen said they included recognition, the key issue.

Ran Through Safety Measure
EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—Robert Dirks, commissioner of health and safety in Effingham, had a four-way stop sign installed at the intersection of U.S. Highway 40 and Willow Avenue last week as a safety measure.

A motorist ran through it Tuesday. His car struck Dirks' auto, causing $100 damage. Dirks was not hurt.

Balloting in selection of the delegates was to be finished today as the 600 conferees continued the conference's 110th annual session.

Dr. Cecil R. Culver, executive secretary of the Arkansas Area Council, told the delegates Tuesday that 824 more persons joined the church in the state last year and that the total membership of 182,891 put $4,330,394 in collection plates. This was an increase of $70,000, he said.

Idea Bonus Nets Him $9,495

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—William L. Williams, 47, a mechanic at United Air Lines, was given the biggest idea bonus in the company's history for a contribution to the suggestion box that saved United almost $100,000 during its first year of application, a company spokesman said Tuesday.

The former Shelbyville, Tenn., farm boy was given $9,495 for devising a method to repair hydraulic system pump components which in the past had to be thrown away.

Refineries Drop Price of Sugar

NEW YORK (AP)—What an Agriculture Department official had termed a speculative bubble in sugar prices has apparently burst.

The nation's two leading refiners—American Sugar Co. and National Sugar Co.—today rolled back a part of the 1963 rise in prices. A Gulf firm, Southdown, Inc., in New Orleans, La., earlier had reduced the price.

Other refiners were expected to follow soon.

The price reductions were the first in the wholesale price of industrial grades of sugar since October 1961. The last time whole sale prices for grocery grades declined was Feb. 16, 1962, and that was temporary.

The new Northeast price is $15.50 per 100 pounds, off 80 cents. The price at the beginning of the year was about $16.

The reduction follows a reversal in the price of raw sugar that set in Thursday. The wholesale price had risen from about 10 cents at the first of the year to almost 17 cents.

The price of five-pound bags of sugar in grocery stores also had risen, from about 55 cents to 80 cents in the East. Some candies, desserts and other sugar-using items also advanced in price.

Legal Answers to Street Plan Inquiries

The Hope Water and Light Commission, in discussing the proposed street paving program, sought the legal answers to some of the questions that have arisen in connection with forming a city-wide improvement district. City Attorney James Pilkinton was asked to get an opinion concerning the question of assessing properties that would not receive any paving and also the question of forming a city-wide improvement district.

The City Attorney requested an opinion from William Nash, one of the state's outstanding bond attorneys, with the firm of Rose, House, Meek, Baron, Nash, and Williamson.

Mr. Pilkinton reported to the Water and Light Commission that Mr. Nash confirmed his opinion that any properties involved in the district that did not receive any paving and was declared to have received no benefits, and therefore no assessment, could never be held liable for the cost of paving abutting other property.

Mr. Nash's opinion also stated that any improvement district must be contiguous and cannot be composed of several isolated parts. If the properties along the highways were left out of the district, and other sections which were not included in the proposed paving program, that would have the effect of separating some parts of the improvements, and it would be necessary to form a number of separate improvement districts. For the purpose of applying for community-wide aid from the federal government, such a program would be wholly unworkable, according to the City Attorney.

After reviewing the program and studying legal opinions in connection with it, the Water and Light Commission unanimously approved the street improvement program and agreed to support the paving program with all the surplus funds of the Water and Light Plant. B. W. Edwards, Chairman of the Commission, said that surplus funds could take care of ten of fifteen per cent of the total requirements for local funds and that with the federal government paying half the cost, the improvement district would pay less than 40% of the total cost of the improvements. He said that with this community's opportunity to get an almost complete system of brand new streets at less than 40% of the cost to the property owners, he felt that everyone interested in building Hope would give the program their enthusiastic support.

The crisis Tuesday apparently was the worst since he was stricken by what the Vatican calls a "gastric teratoma." That could be a benign tumor, a cancer, or an overgrowth of tissue.

Any one condition could cause hemorrhaging. Vatican communications indicated the doctors were more disturbed by the hemorrhages than the growth itself.

This could indicate that the growth was benign and not spreading as would cancer.

The others were Mrs. Bessie Mae Vollenhine, 41, mother of two, and Mrs. Waver Lee White, 28, mother of three.

Mrs. Thomas, described as an excellent student by Principal L. W. Johnson, rode the school bus from her home three miles west of Stamps after getting up at 3 a. m. to do her house work, gather vegetables from her garden and get her children ready for school.

Mrs. Thomas said she didn't plan to go to college, "although I would dearly love to," because of household duties and financial problems.

Mrs. Thomas has two children attending Arkansas AM&N College at Pine Bluff. The other seven have been going to school with her.

The 81-year-old Pope is suffering from internal bleeding and is reported to have cancer. The Pope is shown wearing a casual headpiece called a camauro, and ermine cape and a brocade stole.

Pope Improves After a Near Death Crisis

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII, rallying from a crisis that brought him near death, was reported slightly improved today after spending a good night.

But from the report by Vatican authorities it was clear that improvement was only in relation to the crisis the 81-year-old Roman Catholic ruler suffered Tuesday.

A massive blood transfusion then enabled him to survive hemorrhaging caused by an abnormal stomach growth that has bothered him for a year.

His condition is still grave, and his Roman physician, Dr. Piero Mazzoni, was with him throughout the night. It was his eighth straight night in the apostolic palace.

Women Have Given Big Sacrifice Too

EDITOR'S NOTE — Memorial Day, like war, generally concerns men who have died for their country. But women, too, have given the supreme sacrifice.

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—War, they always used to say, is man's business.

But as far back as the Revolutionary War, when Molly Pitcher in a petticoat, gunner's jacket and battered cocked hat—grabbed a gun, women have been leaving their kitchens to help fight their country's enemies.

American women, too, have given their lives in service to their country.

During World War II, for instance, in 1944 on the beachhead at Anzio, Italy, two Army nurses had just finished giving blood plasma to a soldier when a shell hit. They were killed at the patient's side. In their honor, the Army named a hospital ship after one of them, Lt. Blanche F. Sigmund of East Akron, Ohio.

In honor of these and all American women whose lives were sacrificed in war service, a bell tower will be dedicated "in grateful tribute" on May 30, Memorial Day, at Rindge, N.H.

President Kennedy will send his official wreath to be placed on the altar at the groundbreaking services.

Statistics at the Department of Defense show that 1,088 women died while in uniform service to their country during the first and second World Wars and the Korean conflict.

The American Red Cross lists 300 women workers dead in the two world wars.

Officially, American women did not join their brothers in uniform until 1901, when the Army Nurse Corps was established. The Navy Nurse Corps was authorized in 1908.

Then, during World War II, more women put on the uniform of their country to man the switchboards in North Africa, pound typewriters on Guadalcanal and sail the seas as radio operators.

These were the new Molly Pitchers, the skirted soldiers of the Women's Army Corps, the Waves of the Navy, Spars of the Coast Guard and the women Marines. Later, in 1948, the Women's Air Force was formed.

During the second world war, about 350,000 women saw active military duty, with 65,000 serving overseas. They accounted for about 3 per cent of the 12 million in active service. And 586 women gave their lives to their country.

The Wacs suffered 225 deaths in World War II, 12 of whom died of wounds recorded as battle casualties. There were limitations against their service on the battlefield.

A special plot is set aside in Arlington National Cemetery for Army nurses, who are buried with full military honors. More than 150 lie there, 45 of them from the Spanish-American War.

Nurses served, too, in the Civil War under contract. After the siege of Vicksburg, Miss., the Union navy outfitted a confiscated Confederate steamer, Red Rover, as a floating hospital. Nurses of the nursing sisterhood went aboard to care for the patients.

The Union had its Dr. Mary Walker, a New York surgeon who worked in field hospitals under contract. She wore pants, vest, frock coat and a tall silk hat.

Dr. Walker was given the Medal of Honor for her tireless service. But this was rescinded, along with many others, in the congressional review and re-statement of standards for the medal in 1916.

AVI Earnings Reported Up

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP)—Harold Snyder, president of Arkansas Valley Industries, Inc., of Dardanelle, reported Monday that AVI had net earnings of $509,890 on a record sales volume during the fiscal year ended March 30.

Sales during the 12 months period were $46,379,387, compared to $34,806,930 during the preceding year, Snyder said.

The earnings figure, after adding $167,000 from the company's reserve fund, equals $2.02 a share on an average of 251,010 shares of AVI stock outstanding during the year.

AVI processed and sold 110,000,000 pounds of ready-to-cook broilers during the year, produced 4,373,000 eggs and 3,550,000 pounds of turkey, Snyder said.

Competitive Cotton Plan Favored

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spokesmen for Arkansas cotton growers have been in the forefront of industry representatives trying to persuade Congress to enact some legislation this year to make cotton competitive and at the same time keep the grower from losing ground on the income front.

Testifying recently before the Senate Agriculture Committee were Harvey Adams, West Memphis, representing the Agricultural Council of Arkansas, and Tracy D. Jones, Little Rock, of the Arkansas-Missouri Cotton Trade Association.

Adams has made numerous trips to Washington the past few months in his quest and is one of the more persuasive spokesmen from the state.

Adams, in his recent appearance before the Senate committee, endorsed the main features of the bill which the House Agriculture Committee approved a few days later. This bill, to come up for action by the House the week of June 3, sets up a domestic payment designed to let domestic textile mills buy U.S. cotton at world market prices.

Such a course would enable U.S. mills to compete with foreign mills in the textile market and would keep them buying U.S. cotton rather than to use more and more synthetic fibers.

The problem, of course, is to make U.S. cotton more competitive by making it cheaper without breaking the cotton farmer.

Adams stated it this way: "... farmers cannot survive, regardless of the acres involved, if they have to sell their product below production costs."

While the House Agriculture Committee has approved the domestic payment bill, there still is some doubt as to the bill's chances in the House. And even more doubt as to its treatment by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Oklahoma Convicted

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A Pope Circuit Court jury convicted Thomas A. Bradshaw, 27, of Tahlequah, Okla., Monday on two counts of obtaining money by false pretenses and set his sentence at two years. Formal sentencing was set for Friday. Bradshaw was convicted of obtaining $1,100 from Mrs. Ada Clifton of Russellville by telling her it was for insurance premiums.

today following her marriage to building contractor Maurice F. Smith of Palm Springs, Calif.

The wedding Sunday came as a surprise to most Hollywood insiders.

Miss Shore's divorce from actor George Montgomery became final on May 9 and she picked up the final papers last Friday.

Friends said Miss Shore, 45, met Smith while playing tennis at Palm Springs.

Miss Shore's daughter, Melissa Ann, 15, was maid of honor.

Smith, 42, has two sons by a former marriage.

Democratic Governors, JFK Talk

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, who likes to exchange views at a long, leisurely luncheon has a batch of Democratic governors in today for a discussion of mutual problems.

No one seems sure what those mutual problems are, but Gov. Karl Rolvaag of Minnesota pretty well summed up the gubernatorial reaction.

Reached just as he was leaving his office for Washington, Rolvaag was asked what he and Kennedy would talk about.

"I don't know," Rolvaag said. "He hasn't told me yet."

But since all governors at the luncheon are Democrats, it's a good guess there will be some talk of federal-state frictions and a lot of talk about politics.

This is the first of a series of luncheons for governors and for mayors, and White House press secretary Pierre Salinger says it's just a coincidence that all of the guests are Democrats.

It may be just a coincidence, too, that some of the states whose governors are here today will be critical battlefields in the 1964 presidential election, when the President undoubtedly will try for a second term.

Minnesota, for example, Kennedy beat his Republican foe, Richard M. Nixon, by only 22,000 votes. Rolvaag gave an even more dramatic illustration of how evenly the state is split. After months of recounting, Rolvaag finally won by 91 votes.

Or take Illinois. Out of 4,750,000 votes, Kennedy squeaked through thanks to big Chicago majorities, by less than 9,000 votes.

Or Tennessee. Once a shoo-in for Democrats, this border state has been going Republican in presidential elections, even though its governor and both senators are Democrats.

In addition to Rolvaag, these governors accepted the president's invitation:

Elbert N. Carvel of Delaware, Otto Kerner of Illinois, Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana, Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, Frank G. Clement of Tennessee and Philip H. Hoff of Vermont.

Govs. Edwitt Peabody of Massachusetts and John W. King of New Hampshire hoped to attend, but Gov. John N. Dempsey of Connecticut sent his regrets.

To Honor Senator

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., will be honored at a meeting in Little Rock July 9 of promoters of the Arkansas River development project.

In the afternoon, high scorer was Mrs. Duffie Booth. The game prize went to Mrs. George Peck. Hostesses were: Mrs. Don Evans, Mrs. W. E. Tolleson, Jr., Mrs. E. M. McWilliams and Mrs. J. W. Branch.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellis and Trisio Bryant have as their guests, their aunt, Mrs. Grace Thread of St. Louis.

Bill Spillers, formerly of Hope and a student at Ouachita Baptist College, has gone to his present home in Kenai, Alaska, for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Bayse have gone to Springfield, Mo., for graduation exercises Thursday at Evangel College, and will attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Ronnie Adams, Saturday in St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Ridling had for last week guest Mr. and Mrs. Wandell Dawson, of Pomona Calif. Mrs. Rose Lawson, Claremont, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Richardson, and sons, Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Rogers, and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Winberry of Waldo, Md. Pete Winberry of Route 104, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sage of Little Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Ridling attended the Winberry Reunion, Sunday at the Stamp Mill Pond in Stamps, Arkansas.

4 Generations of Godwins

On Mother's Day four generations of Godwins gathered here. Left to right in the picture: Mrs. Gary Laney, granddaughter of Mrs. Godwin; her son, W. G. Godwin, and her great grandson, Randy Laney, all of Longview, Texas and Mrs. L. C. Godwin of Hope, Mrs. W. G. Godwin and Mrs. Billy Coley of Longview were also Mother's Day visitors.

HIS GIRL KEEPS FAST COMPANY
By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My girl is heading for trouble and her folks blame me. The company she keeps is of her choosing; a fast lot of high school thrill-seekers up to no good. She has four boys on the string now and I'm worried about the outcome.

"I go to booze parties with these guys because I have fun," she said when I warned her of what might happen.

"Honey, there are other ways to have fun," I said.

"Not for me," she said.

"Okay," I said, "if you go, I'll go."

Last Saturday this crowd staged a big affair at a roadside tavern. I kept an eye on my girl and let her have fun up to a point. Then she taunted me, "Fraidy cat, won't take a drink!" And everybody laughed. So I swallowed a glass of brandy straight. Now I face 30 days in jail or $500 fine.

What's worse, my girl's parents forbid her to see me again. If I tell them the truth, she'll get hell. If I don't, she's lost to me forever. I'm 20, she's 16. We had been going steady for a year and were doing fine till these wild Indians took over. With me not around to watch over her, I fear the consequences. I heard she climbed out her window last night to keep a date with them. What shall I do—Worried?

Dear Worried: Instead of worrying about your girl you should be worrying about yourself. By now I'm sure you've been forced to choose between the fine or the jail sentence. I hope you decided on the latter because then you will have plenty of time to contemplate the foolishness of your ways and to resolve to behave more like a 20-year-old. Don't blame others for your own misconduct. You alone are responsible for your actions.

It sounds to me as if your girl were more serious about some "wild Indians" than she is about you. Some Indians used to be wild, it's true, but now they, as well as you and your girl are expected to be civilized and obey the law which in most states prohibits selling liquor to minors. All of you, including the tavern keeper, or were guilty on this count, and the sooner everyone knows about this the better.

Tattling on your girl will only precipitate more trouble for all concerned. Her parents are bound to find out the truth soon enough. Often the greatest disservice we can do to those we love is to protect them from the consequences of their behavior.

Watching over your girl is not only failing to help her, it's leading you into trouble. Demonstrate a mature respect for authority by complying with her parents' wishes and obeying the law regardless of what she and her misguided friends do or say.

In time she will probably see the light and realize that you are a finer person than her wild Indians. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Teenage Code."

Dear Helen: This summer I expect to move to a rural area in New England and am trying to find a way to supplement my small income. I have considered starting a mail order business but don't know where to get the necessary information. Can you help me I read your column every day and enjoy it very much, though not always agreeing. I would appreciate your advice.—Independent

Dear Independent: The Great American Success Story fascinates us all and what we overlook is the vast number of failures that takes lace every year. Judging by the volume of mail order catalogs I receive, I would say that this might be a very risky business to get into. For more reliable information, however, you might write the Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

To supplement your income, I would suggest that you try to evaluate two factors, your own aptitudes and the nature of the community in which you'll be living. Try to assess your capabilities in relation to the needs of the people in your area. A service such as babysitting, tutoring, furniture refinishing, might be more in demand than merchandise.

Dear Helen: In a few weeks my girl friend and I are giving a slumber party and we would like you to suggest some games which could be played. There will be about eight girls from the ages of 13 to 16.—Pixie and Dixie

Dear Pixie and Dixie: Never having attended a slumber party, I consulted a junior high school student who is a veteran of many such affairs. She reports that in addition to record playing, TV watching, and radio listening, a variety of games may be played, Charades and its many variations are always fun, as is that old stand-by of seeing who can remember the greatest number of assorted objects on a tray placed in view of all for about 30 seconds.

To start the party with a bang, give each girl a deflated balloon and a piece of string. At the signal, "Go!", everyone blows up the balloon, ties it, and breaks it. The winner is the one who performs this feat quickest.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bomb Tossed in Jackson Race Trouble

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A kerosene bomb was thrown into the carport of a Negro leader at midnight after he predicted renewed integration activities today.

Medgar Evers, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the bomb damaged his station wagon but that nothing caught fire.

Evers' wife and their three children were at home. Evers was at an NAACP meeting.

Mrs. Evers said she heard an auto pass by just before the kerosene-filled beer bottle was thrown. Jackson police said they believed it was the work of pranksters.

Evers had said he expected Negroes would go to the city park and possibly to lunch counters today after Mayor Allen Thompson and Negro leaders disagreed over terms of a racial accord.

Jackson's first violence broke out Tuesday at a variety store lunch counter where four Negroes and a white teacher staged a sit-in demonstration. A group of whites gathered around. One Negro was kicked and beaten savagely.

Shortly after the demonstration began, Negro leaders met with Thompson in a closed session. The Rev. Mr. V. H. Highton, told an NAACP meeting Tuesday night that the mayor had agreed to meet several of their goals.

The mayor, however, said he had agreed to only two of them. Thompson said he would hire Negroes for policemen and school crossing guards—but that he would not do that now because his statements had been misrepresented.

In addition to the use of Negroes for police and crossing guards, the Negro leaders had asked the removal of segregation signs on public buildings, upgrading of Negro city employees, formation of a biracial committee, and desegregation of schools, eating places and public facilities such as parks and libraries.

When told of Thompson's denial, Highton said he would not negotiate further with the mayor. As for Thompson's refusal to let Negroes use the city park, Highton said "he'll find out" today.

Graduation Over in Few Colleges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Commencement exercises at six Arkansas colleges were held Sunday for 847 graduates.

Exercises were held Saturday at John Brown University for 52 degree recipients, boosting the weekend total to 899.

The largest number received degrees at Arkansas Polytechnic College at Russellville. Harold Snyder, president of Arkansas Valley Industries, Inc., at Dardanelle, told the 221 Tech graduates that problems are their opportunities.

He said the South's greatest asset is her people to build schools, businesses and communities.

Dr. James W. Reynolds of the University of Texas told a class of 204 graduating seniors at Arkansas State Teachers College at Conway that "the favorite whipping boy of the American public is the public school."

"As a teacher," he said, "you obligate yourself as an authority on educational problems and, on this basis, speak out firmly and vigorously so that the general public may have the substantial benefit of your competence."

Degrees were conferred on 178 seniors at Henderson State Teachers College at Arkadelphia. The speaker was Dr. Walter H. Ryle, president of Northeast Missouri State Teachers College at Kirksville, Mo.

Bill Moyers, deputy director of the Peace Corps, emphasized work of the corps in his talk on "The Spirit of the Free Society" at Ouachita Baptist College at Arkadelphia. Degrees were awarded to 163 graduates.

Dr. R. L. South of North Little Rock, a member of the Ouachita Board of Trustees, announced that Dr. Ralph A. Phelps Jr., president of the college, has been granted one year's leave of absence with pay to be used at his discretion for travel or further graduate study.

Phelps, president of the school for 10 years, indicated he would take the leave beginning next fall.

Gov. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma told 48 College of the Ozarks graduates that the field of government needs persons with higher educations. He urged the graduates to stay in Arkansas and contribute to its growth, but said they were welcome in Oklahoma.

College officials announced that construction would begin this summer on a women's dormitory.

Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes, president of Southwestern University of Memphis, urged 33 graduates of Arkansas College at Batesville to use their basic liberal education as a "launching pad" for adventures in education.

Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon and Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas urged the John Brown University graduates to become "dynamic and virile Christian leaders."

Hollis Purdie

There will be a Dorman reunion in the Bodewau No. 1 community this weekend honoring the memory of the late G. W. Dorman. The reunion opens Saturday with a musical at the home of Green Dorman. Dinner will be served at Bodewau Deer Camp Sunday, June 2.

The reunion closes with a community service at the Baptist Church at 5 p.m. with the Rev. Hollis A. Purdie, grandson of the late Rev. G. W. Dorman as the speaker. The public is invited to the service at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Rural Roads Pressing, Faubus Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The interstate highway system is fine, but adequate rural roads are the most pressing need of the state, Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday.

He told 50 contractors, state officials and Highway Department employees inspecting the interstate road complex in the Little Rock area that, "In some rural school districts there are no improved roads. That makes for great expense in running school buses."

"I'd like for you to go into the rural areas of the state and see what is not being done."

Faubus' remarks came on the eve of a meeting of the state Highway Commission meeting today to open road bids.

The tour, part of the Arkansas Highway Week program, was conducted by the Highway Department.

Faubus told the group that some takes important to tourist business do not have paved access roads.

"And the first thing industry asks about is roads," he added.

A light suggestion by Faubus that someone might volunteer to be taxed to provide funds for rural roads drew the comment from Little Rock Mayor Byron Morse, "If you can find a way where we can pay $5 a license tag and build a rural roads system, I'll be the first to vote for it."

The contractors, legislators and highway commissioners toured what will be the focal point of the state's $43.7 million interstate

14 Take Stand in Murder Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fourteen persons took the stand Tuesday as preliminary testimony started in the first degree murder trial of Jerry J. Johnson, a Negro charged in the fatal stabbing of Mrs. W. F. Arrington last July 31 near Jacksonville.

A jury of 10 men and two women was seated earlier to hear the case.

Mrs. Arrington was killed in a $46 robbery at the grocery store-service station she operated in the Rixey community northeast of North Little Rock.

Tyree Pettus, Johnson's stepfather, and Bob Cherry, a friend, testified that Johnson had borrowed a knife from Cherry the morning of the murder.

Dr. Howard A. Dishongh, county coroner, testified that Mrs. Arrington died of 20 stab wounds in the chest.

Deputy Sheriff R. E. Mitchell produced a flashlight he said Johnson told him the money was hidden in.

Other witnesses for the prosecution included members of Mrs. Arrington's family and various authorities.

Gathings to Speak

Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., will be principal speaker Thursday at Memorial Day services at Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Va.

One segment of the central Arkansas system, Interstate 30, will be completed this fall, enabling motorists to go through Little Rock without a stop.

The interstate system will provide a non-stop road across the state when it is completed in 1972.

Its main parts are Interstate 30 from Texarkana to Little Rock, 40 from Fort Smith to West Memphis and 55 from West Memphis north to the Missouri state line.

Interstate 30 and 40 will be connected by a spur west of the capital city and another spur will lead from 40 into the heart of Fort Smith.

Priority was given to Interstate work near major Arkansas cities. Y. W. Wheelock, administrative assistant to the highway commissioner, told the tour group.

Market in Gain in Early Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels, motors and other industrials moved higher in moderate trading early this afternoon to give the stock market a fairly substantial gain.

Advances of most key stocks were fractional, some going to around a point.

The quiet trading was normal for a pre-holiday session. The exchanges will be closed Thursday, Memorial Day.

Ability of the market to pass the anniversary of "Black Monday's" plunge without having the jitters Tuesday was a psychological advantage and meanwhile business news remained reasonably good.

Even a cut in refined sugar prices while a congressional investigation into the recent leap in sugar prices was starting did not disturb the sugar stocks. Most of them showed moderate gains.

Most chemicals, oils, rails, utilities, and nonferrous metals also moved higher, but with no particular excitement.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.1 at 274.5—a pretty sharp gain—with industrials up 1.6, rails up .7, and utilities up .5.

Chrysler, under a renewed spate of buying, paced the automotive issues with a jump exceeding a point. General Motors, yesterday's most active gainer added a fraction. Ford also nudged higher while American Motors and Studebaker traded about unchanged.

American Crystal Sugar and South Puerto Sugar gained a point or so.

IBM spurred more than 3. Two-point gains were scored by Texas Instruments and Polaroid.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon it was up 3.32 at 721.47.

American stock exchange prices moved irregularly higher in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds edged higher. U.S. government bonds were off slightly.

Koufax Pitches Dodgers Within Game of Lead

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax obviously is taking his cue from Frank Sinatra, who once played the part of "The Man with the Golden Arm." It was about a poker player who rarely lost while dealing.

That, of course, is the story of the Los Angeles Dodgers Man with the Golden Arm. When he is dealing he doesn't lose.

He was dealing well enough Tuesday night, blanking Milwaukee 7-0 on six hits, his fourth shut-out of the season, and pitching the Dodgers to within one game of National League-leading San Francisco.

The Giants suffered a rain-interrupted 10-6 bombing at Cincinnati. St. Louis closed to within three games on the strength of a 10-inning 8-7 conquest of Houston, Chicago's surprising Cubs moved into fourth place by beating the New York Mets 5-2, and Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 5-1, all in night games.

In the American League, also all at night, Baltimore stretched its lead to 3½ games by beating Kansas City 4-2 while the New York Yankees took an 11-6 licking at Boston. Cleveland edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2, Bob Allison's ninth-inning homer brought Minnesota its eighth straight victory, 6-3 over Washington, and Detroit edged the Los Angeles Angels 3-1.

Koufax, who was on his way to a fantastic season last year before he was sidelined with a circulatory ailment in the index finger on his pitching hand, lowered his earned run average to 1.32 with the shutout of the Braves.

Jim O'Toole got the benefit of Cincinnati's free-swinging attack on San Francisco and became the first pitcher in the NL to win eight games. He has lost three.

Leading the Red rout were Marty Keough with three hits, including a bases-loaded triple, Frank Robinson with three runs batted in on a homer and a double, and Vada Pinson with a double, three singles and a stolen base. Orlando Cepeda had two doubles and drove in five runs for the Giants.

Curt Flood's double to right, the Cards' 10th hit, drove in the winning run in the 10th after St. Louis had struggled from behind a 7-3 deficit with a four-run burst in the seventh. The winning blow followed a single by Gene Oliver and a bunt single by Charley James. The Colts' Howie Goss drove in

Lefthander Thinks He Can Win

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can a left-hander win the U.S. Open Golf Championship?

Bob Charles, a lanky lefty from Christchurch, New Zealand, thinks so and the way he performed in Tuesday's wind-up of the first round qualifying for the mighty Open, who's to say he's wrong.

Charles, a 6-foot-1, 155-pound former bank clerk who last month became the first left-hander to win a PGA tour competition, fired a pair of brilliant rounds at the 6,501-yard Colonial Country Club course in Memphis as 106 more places were determined for the next stage of Open qualifying. His 16 hole total of 65-57-132 was the lowest across the nation in two days of firing designed to reduce the original entry list from 2,424 to 505.

All except 21 of the 505 will be back at it in second-part qualifying June 10-11 that will get the monstrous field down to a select group of 150 for the championship proper at Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

The 21 automatic berths are reserved for the aces—including defending champion Jack Nicklaus former champ Arnold Palmer, and PGA king Gary Player—with a left-hander among them.

The 132 at the Colonial course in Memphis, where 45 of the top touring pros qualified, gave Charles national honors by one six runs on two homers and a triple.

Ron Santo had a two-run triple and Billy Williams a two-run inside the park homer to power the Cubs past the Mets, who have lost eight of their last nine. Dick Ellis won his sixth against three losses.

A two-run homer by Johnny Callison, a two-run triple by Tony Gonzalez and some shoddy Pittsburgh fielding helped the Phils' Cal McLish win his fourth straight.

Smith's 3-Run Homer Keeps Orioles Going

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The latest member of Baltimore's hero-a-game club is Al Smith, a 35-year-old veteran who latched onto the brass ring after stepping off a merry-go-round.

Smith tagged a three-run homer that capped a four-run fifth inning uprising as the Orioles ran their winning streak to nine games and ballooned their American League lead to 3½ lengths by defeating Kansas City 4-2 Tuesday night.

Acquired in an off-season trade with the Chicago White Sox, Smith has found himself in an unusual role with the Orioles. He has been playing only one position instead of commuting between the infield and outfield as in most of his 11-year major league career.

The move has paid off for the Orioles, with the talented handyman settling in as an outfield regular and concentrating on his hitting. During the Orioles' streak he has hit at a .381 clip, raising his average to .293 with seven homers and 17 runs batted in.

The Orioles' latest victory — marking the longest winning streak in the majors this season — also was their 14th in 15th games and increased their edge over the second-place New York Yankees, who were belted by Boston 11-6.

Minnesota's Twins also continued their winning march, rolling to victory No. 8 in a row and reaching the .500 level for the first time by beating Washington 6-3 on Bob Allison's three-run homer with two out in the last of the ninth.

In other AL action, Cleveland edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 and rookie Mickey Lolich won his first game in the majors as Detroit whipped the Los Angeles Angels 3-1.

National League leading San Francisco lost to Cincinnati 10-6, the Los Angeles Dodgers shut out Houston 7-0, St. Louis edged Milwaukee 8-7 in 10 innings, Philadelphia downed Pittsburgh 5-1 and the Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets 5-2.

The Red Sox got the job done against the Yankees with a 15-hit explosion. Gary Geiger hit his fourth homer in as many games and Lou Clinton chipped in with another two-run shot while Ed Bressoud singled home two runs in a four-run second inning, tripled home a run in a three-run third and singled to start a four-run sixth. Bill Monbouquette was the winner, with Bill Stafford taking the loss.

Allison's game-winning shot off Ron Kline followed a double by Lenny Green and a walk to Vic Power and snapped the Twins' slugger out of an 0-for-15 skid. The Senators, losers of 15 of their last 17 games, had tied the score in the top of the ninth on Chuck Cottier's run-scoring single and a two-run homer by Don Lock. Jim Kaat, who had a three-hit shutout for eight innings, lasted long enough to win it.

Ray Herbert drove in both White Sox runs with a homer and a single but took his second loss against five victories when the Indians came up with two runs in the sixth on a homer by Vic Davalillo and a run-producing double by Max Alvis. Both Davalillo and Alvis Barr rookies. Jack Kralick brought his record to 3-2 with relief help from Ted Abernathy.

Lolich, who had four losing minor league seasons and an 0-1 record in the majors, scattered eight hits to post victory No. 1 against the Angels. The 22-year-old left-

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Lee Elia blasted a 400-foot drive over deep left center fence Tuesday night to give the Arkansas Travelers momentum for a 6-3 victory over Jacksonville.

The shortstop's grand slam, one of the longest at Traveler Field in recent years, brought home Cal Emery and Richie Allen in the second inning. In the third inning Emery walked, Allen doubled and catcher Bob Lipski hit a sacrifice fly to bring Emery in. Allen tried a double steal and was caught between second and third, but came in when Harry Chiti threw low to third base.

The Travelers picked up one more run in the eighth on a homer by Allen.

The Suns scored one in the sixth when Willie Tasby came in during a double play. Tasby doubled in the eighth, Billy Williams and Walt Bond followed with singles and Casey Wise hit a sacrifice fly to allow the Suns their final two runs.

We believe in brand names because we know that the manufacturer who labels his merchandise is proud of what he makes. You can be sure that a product bearing a nationally advertised label represents the utmost in benefits to you. We are proud of the fine brand names we feature . . . and gladly endorse them with our own name.

This gives you a double guarantee of quality, fashion, comfort and value.
